AAPA Appoints Seelen Sakran As Corporate Communications Manager

The Association of Asia Pacific Airlines (AAPA) has appointed Mr Thanaseelen Rajasakran (Seelen Sakran) as Corporate Communications Manager.

In this new role Seelen is responsible for managing all aspects of AAPA corporate communications including print and online publications, as well as media and public relations. He joins AAPA from a communications and media background, having served as a public relations consultant and financial journalist over the past 10 years.

Welcoming the appointment, Mr Andrew Herdman, AAPA's Director General, said: "As the international trade association for Asia-Pacific's leading airlines, we are pleased to welcome Seelen to the AAPA team. His experience will add further strength to our efforts to widen the role and influence of Asia Pacific airlines as major players in global aviation."

Association of Asia Pacific Airlines (AAPA)

The AAPA is the trade association of 17 scheduled international airlines based in the Asia-Pacific region. The AAPA permanent secretariat is headquartered in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia with international representation in Brussels and Washington, D.C. Collectively, AAPA member airlines carry 270 million passengers and 10 million tonnes of cargo representing approximately one-fifth of global passenger traffic and one-third of global air cargo traffic respectively, and thus play a critically important role in the ongoing development of global aviation.
